First Selectwoman's Corner

Dear Willington Residents,

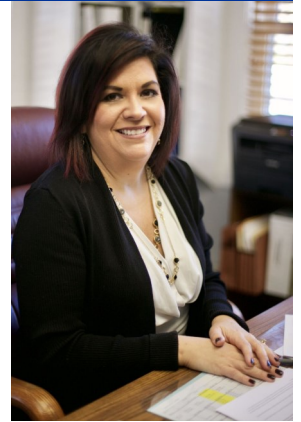

Summer is in full swing here in Willington, even during a Pandemic. Here at home and across the state we continue to work towards Reopening Connecticut in a safe, responsible manner. We hope you are enjoying the outdoors and warmer temperatures while maintaining social distancing.

While many of the town's boards and commissions take time off over the summer, other boards and our town departments remain very productive to support ongoing needs and services. The Public Works Department is particularly busy this time of year. Our crew will be chip sealing several roads in the coming months along with the regular maintenance that comes with summertime. Willington Parks and Recreation is keeping busy with a modified Wednesdays-in-the-Park Summer Concert Series beginning July 22nd following current State guidelines for outdoor events. In addition, WPRD is working to provide future programming as Reopen guidelines allow.

The Town Office Building is currently closed to the public but remains fully staffed 9am -4pm on Mondays and 9am-2pm Tuesday-Friday. If your business absolutely requires your presence at the Town Hall, please call the office you need to schedule an appointment. I try to be available during office hours or by appointment. Although I am not currently holding in person meetings, please call or email to share your concerns or ideas as we begin to plan farther into the future. I hope to see you out and about in Willington again soon, until then Stay Safe!

'It's okay, my dog is friendly...'

No it's NOT okay! Just because your dog is friendly doesn't mean all dogs are - please remember:

Never let your dog run up to a dog on leash- they could be scared or become reactive.

Try to respect other owners and their need for space.

Not all dogs want the added attention or intrusion.

If you have no voice control over your dog off leash then keep them on.

Conservation Commission

Summer is upon us and much of nature has fully unfolded in all of its many forms. Put your walking shoes on, grab your binoculars and camera (take the usual tick-deterrent steps!) and go out and observe the wide variety of wildlife and plants in the forests, wetlands, fields, ponds and waterways in Willington's extensive nature preserves. And this year:

PLEASE: Practice social distancing when encountering others in the Park. Step aside and maintain appropriate distances on the trails, picnic and parking area, and view sites. Thank you.

The 300-acre Fenton-Ruby Park and Wildlife Preserve and Drobney Sanctuary on Moose Meadow Road has 4-plus miles of trails through woods, over ridges and along ponds and streams. A kiosk with maps is located at the parking area, and a box with nature trail guides is located a short distance down the Taylor Trail. Trail maps are also posted at all trail intersections. Several picnic tables and benches are available in the picnic area adjacent to the parking lot and overlooking the "beaver pond".

Suggestions: (1) Take the Ruby Trail and the Ashford Link Trail over to Ashford's Langhammer Preserve; (2) Observe wildlife from the viewing/fishing deck at the "beaver pond"; (3) Walk up Burma Road past the boulders near the Ruby Trail junction and take a right onto Amidon Road and look for the fairy houses at the bases of trees.

Please abide by Park regulations to help make visiting an enjoyable experience for everyone. The opportunity to observe wildlife in this sanctuary will be greatly increased for all if pets are kept on leashes. Wildlife will adapt to the presence of people, not so much to pets running free.

The 28-acre Talmadge Tract, which contains the Talmadge Spur Trail with 1 ½ and 2-mile loops, will take you through scenic woodlands and along gravel Mason Road. This tract abuts the 400-acre UConn Moss Forest Tract, and on the other side of Mason Road is the 138-acre Royal Knowlton Preserve. Several miles of the Connecticut Blue Trail (Nipmuck) run through this area, with a portion along the Fenton River as it flows through a deep ravine. The ¾-mile Knowlton Spur Trail connects the Nipmuck Trail to the Talmadge Trail. Maps can usually be found at the sign at the Talmadge/Knowlton trailheads on Mason Road where there is a parking area, and also at the sign where the Nipmuck crosses Mason Rd. Information is available for Fenton-Ruby on the Conservation Commission website (see below).

Other hikes: (1) An interesting and scenic place for a short hike is along Roaring Brook. A trail and fishing area along this rock-strewn river bed with its rapids and pools bordered by large oaks and pines can be accessed from a parking area on the right a quarter-mile up Village Hill Road from Rte 32. NB: There is no maintained trail here and there is one steep climb. Stairs lead down from the lot to a path under the bridge. Care is needed on wet rocks and especially in high water. Although this is private property and should be respected as such, access is allowed by conservation easement. The easement property connects to a CT DEEP trout management area along the brook to Rte 32. (2) See also the information about Joshua's Trust's Chenes Roches Preserve, with its many attractive features, under Parks and Recreation See also, joshuastrust.org for information about all of their trails in 14 towns.

Therapy: These highly unusual and stressful times have curtailed many of our normal and expected activities and life styles. Fortunately, Willington's foresight in preserving open spaces and providing access to them makes them an even more valuable resource in these stressful days. Plan to take advantage of Willington's protected forest resources this summer for appreciation of their beauty, for observation of the varied ecosystems and habitats, for exercise, and for their restorative powers. The Japanese practice of shinrin-yoku, or forest bathing, is beneficial for both physical and mental wellbeing. Immersing your senses in the surrounding forest has been proven to reduce stress, boost the immune system and lower heart rate and blood pressure. There is plenty of information about this on the interweb.

So, go! Take a walk in the woods and let nature lessen the anxieties and tensions of these difficult times.

Wanted: We are looking for old aluminum extension ladder sections to which decking can be attached for use as trail bridges. Contact info below.

Opportunity: If you are interested in taking an active part in helping the Town manage its environmental resources, the Commission has openings for alternate members. Alternate members participate in meetings and may be seated as voting members in the absence of regular members. Anyone is welcome to attend our meetings in the lower level of the Town Office Building on the third Wednesday of every month. Contact Peter Andersen, Commission Chair, at 860-933-6380 or andersen108@sbcglobal.net, or Kathy Demers, Commission Vice-Chair, at 860-377-6416 or kdemers48@gmail.com for more information. Please visit the Conservation Commission website under "Boards and Commissions" on the Town of Willington home page, www.willingtonct.org, for information on conservation issues, programs and links to other websites. Last, we would be happy to hear any comments you may have about your experiences regarding Willington's outdoor resources.

Economic Development Commission

Over the last few months, Willington's Economic Development Commission has been working on several new initiatives to help support Willington's businesses.

The EDC has recently launched a new website and Facebook page that provides residents and business owners with access to various resources including a business directory, meeting, and COVID-19 information, brochures, Town amenities, and more. In addition, in response to business closures related to COVID-19, the EDC developed a survey to better understand how businesses have been affected and how the EDC and Town at large can help. The EDC has also summarized various programs that are available to local businesses and made them available on their website

In the coming months, the EDC plans to host networking events with guest speakers who will present on relevant business topics. More information about these networking events may be found on the EDC website. Furthermore, the EDC will work alongside the Planning and Zoning Commission to address the Town's Zoning Regulations in hopes of making them more business friendly.

We encourage our residents and business owners to get involved by submitting their business information for the EDC's Business Directory page or by submitting suggestions and questions through the form on our contact page. The Willington EDC stands ready to help!

Historical Society

Along with you, the Historical Society has been keeping a low social profile for the past few months. While social distancing, there have been several projects that have been able to move forward a little at a time. There was some taproom wall restoration in the tavern building and continued building of the period rail fence on Common Road. You can keep an eye on these ongoing projects by visiting the Society on FaceBook. You can help introduce our activities to others by liking and sharing our FB posts.

As we all start the transition to returning to a 'new' normal in our lives, consider connecting with Willington history. The Willington Historical Society is dependent on local volunteers and members. That means we depend on you, our fellow townspeople, neighbors and friends to keep the Society active and moving forward. That new help has been in short supply during the last few years.

Consider becoming an active member or a volunteer.

We need your help to succeed with these projects.

- Tavern Preservation
- Archive Maintenance
- Yard and Grounds
- Programing and Publicity

If you're house or attic cleaning and throwing out ... we're looking for ... items that help recount Willington History. You can help!

Consider donating certain items to the Society instead of donating to the bins at the transfer station! The transfer station ships our history, bits and pieces, out of town. Help tell and support Willington's History, please!

Contacting the Willington Historical Society:

Donations may be made through the PayPal link on our website homepage or regular mail at the Society's P.O. 214, Willington CT, 06279.

Soil Degradation

“A nation that destroys its soil destroys itself,” Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Over 80 years ago President Roosevelt issued a letter to State Governors outlining the need for a Uniform Soil Conservation Law after catastrophic flooding and dust storms decimated the mid-west. There have been many successes and failures since this letter was issued but now more than ever is that quote meaningful. Soil is something we interact with every day and for the most part don't think twice about what is happening beneath our feet. I've often found it interesting how the majority of us move through this world completely unaware of the systems that surround us. When you pick up a handful of soil there are hundreds of microorganisms unable to be seen with the naked eye that provide valuable functions to maintain healthy soil.

As land is more developed and the population continues to grow the need for healthy soil becomes even greater. This is a difficult balance as development and population increase often lead to less available land. Not only is land important but quality soil is as well. A healthy layer of topsoil is needed to support plant growth with pore spaces that allow air and water to move through and supply organisms with required nutrients. Organic matter helps support critical soil functions and without microorganisms, soil is not able to work as a system and becomes degraded over time. The fruits and vegetables we eat depend on healthy, nutrient rich soil to grow. One of the major issues with keeping soil healthy is learning to minimize impact caused by humans. Globally, approximately 24 billion tons of top soil is lost every year due to erosion.

Once common agricultural practices such as tilling and lack of crop rotation lead to a breakdown and loss of organic matter causing instability in the soil. When soil lacks organic matter it is not able to hold on to water and essential nutrients that not only keep the soil together but promote healthy plant growth. Once this organic matter is lost and nutrients begin to leach, erosion becomes inevitable. Loss of topsoil is detrimental to agricultural practices because a healthy topsoil is necessary for plant growth. Also, top soil is not easily replicable. It takes 2,000 years for natural processes to create 10 cm. of fertile soil from bedrock. If we continue to degrade our top soil, we will not have any left and as you can see, it is not something that can be easily replaced. Many scientists have estimated there are only about 60 years of farmable soil left.

The use of pesticides and herbicides increase crop yield but prolonged use leads to the disruption of microorganisms in the soil. Resulting in more harmful bacteria in the soil instead of beneficial bacteria. Agriculture practices are not the only culprit to soil degradation. Land development for industrial and urban purposes are also major problems. When development occurs, the landscape is often clear cut leaving exposed soil that if not properly stabilized can be lost through wind and/or water erosion.

Soil health is becoming increasingly important as our population grows increasing the demand for food and sound agricultural practices. As development continues the need for protecting topsoil and farmable land grows more important. As technology and research advance there is hope for sustainable farming initiatives. Regulations on erosion control measures are becoming more common to preserve healthy topsoil and reduce the risk of erosion. Education is still the most important factor that will aid in keeping our soil healthy for future generations.

Tax Collector

PROPERTY TAX BILLS HAVE BEEN MAILED

Greetings Willington Residents!

I hope you are all staying safe and well during this time of uncertainty. With tax season upon us I wanted to provide information on how things will be handled for the foreseeable future. Due to COVID-19, the Town Office Building will remain closed to the public until further notice. I strongly encourage all of you to make your payment by mail, by use of our drop box located outside the front entrance or online at www.willingtonct.org. Please note that there is a convenience fee of 2.95% for credit cards and $1.95 for EFT for online payments.

If you need to make your payment in person, this will be done by appointment only. Please call the Revenue Department at (860) 487-3111 to set up a time to come in.

In compliance with State of CT Executive Orders 7S/7W, the Town of Willington has chosen to extend the grace period in which bills can be paid without penalty to October 1, 2020, excluding real estate accounts that are escrowed and Landlords. This means that, while taxes are due on July 1, 2020, no 2019 Grand List bill will be charged interest until October 2, 2020. Interest will still be charged after October 1 at the state mandated rate of 1.5% per month or 18% per year. Any 2019 Grand List bill not paid by October 1 will be charged 6% interest (4 months due). Please note that interest cannot be waived per CT State Statute 12-146.

I ask that Landlords contact the Revenue Department, at their earliest convenience, to determine if they qualify for the offered program.

1st Installment Due by October 1, 2020

How can I pay My Bill?

The Revenue Office accepts cash, money orders or personal checks for payment at the office. If our office is closed, you can leave a check in our Drop Box outside the front door of the building. Our mailing address is 40 Old Farms Rd, Willington CT 06279 if you want to mail in a payment. Please enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope if you would like a receipt mailed back to you. You may also pay online at www.willingtonct.org and click on “Online Tax Payments”. There is a convenience fee of 2.95% for credit cards and $1.95 for EFT.

When is my Payment Due? When is it considered Late?

Payments due July 1, 2020 must be received, or postmarked, no later than Thursday October 1, 2020. Payments due January 1, 2021 must be received, or postmarked, no later than Monday, February 1, 2021.

Interest is charged at a rate of 1 ½% per month from the due date, with a minimum interest charge of $2.00.

Per §12-146, Interest cannot be waived.

What am I being Taxed on?

You are being taxed on Real Estate, Personal Property and Motor Vehicles as of October 1, 2019.

Real Estate – All real property listed on the Grand List.

Personal Property – In the most general terms, personal property is everything subject to ownership, excluding land, any interest in land or any permanent improvement thereon. It is property that is not permanently affixed to or part of real estate. By its very nature then, personal property is moveable. This broad definition includes tangible items such as airplanes, campers, unregistered vehicles, items for business as furniture, fixtures, equipment, and animals.

Registered Motor Vehicles – Vehicles listed with the Department of Motor Vehicles are coded by tax town, and the Assessor is provided a list of registered vehicles annually. Willington's Town Code is 160.

All tax bills are mailed directly to property owners unless the Tax Collector receives specific instructions to send the bill to your bank or financial institution.

Real Estate and Personal Property tax totaling $100 or more are due in two installments; July and January. Motor vehicle tax is due in one installment in July. Please note, we do not send out bills for the second installment in January. There is a stub on the July bills for the January payment.

I thank you all in advance for bearing with us while we navigate these murky waters. We're doing our best to make sure the staff, and residents alike, stay as safe as possible during this time.

Regards-

Janice Clauson

Willington Public Library

Hello Everyone!

It's been too long since we've had the opportunity to be together. We miss you all very much! We can't wait to see and serve you all once again. We are busy working on the many changes that have had to take place since the Covid-19 pandemic began. Thank you for your patience and understanding during these trying times of uncertainty and change.

We are disappointed to announce that in light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic circumstances and limitations, many things have had to change here at the Willington Public Library. It is due to these changes and considerations, that we have decided to cancel this year's annual Summer Reading Program. Please don't let this discourage you from reading this summer and having fun doing so. We encourage you to keep reading during the summer months as always. It is so important, in so many ways.

We had a lot of wonderful and exciting fun and educational programs planned for this summer but unfortunately, they had to be canceled or postponed. We are looking forward to rescheduling many of them for next year's Summer Reading Program.

We are working hard and doing our best to keep you up-to-date of any changes, as they arise. Please continue to look into the many different social medias we are on, for any upcoming changes. Tune into any one of our many social media's for up-to-date information and programming available. We offer our website at www.willingtonpubliclibrary.org, you can like us on Facebook, we are now on Twitter, you may also sign up for our Library E-Blast and we are also available at Burbio.com. So please keep in touch, with whichever one of these ways, you like most.

As we become informed of updates as to what we are or are not allowed to do for your protection, we will pass this information onto you. There is much going on with preparation to reopen. It will not be the same but a new different. Things are different everywhere but if we work together, we will get through this.

We are planning the first stages of Phase 1 of the Covid-19 opening for our library. The first phase will apply to returns only (no donations at this time). Returns will be accepted via "curbside service" beginning Friday, June 5, and continue until further notice. Updates will be posted on the library website. Please use this schedule for returning your items:

Remain in your car and open the trunk remotely if possible. We will remove the bag(s) and close your trunk. Your items will not be checked in immediately, so please allow up to 20 days for this process. All fines will be removed from your record.

Please do not return your items if it is raining.

We will NOT be accepting donations at this time. When that time becomes safe, we will let you know.

As Museums and Zoos begin to reopen, there are many new restrictions and limitations being applied under specific guidelines due to the COVID-19 pandemic situation. You will find all of our Passes listed on our Website. Before considering and requesting a pass, it is strongly suggested and recommended, that you go on-line, to that individual institutions website, to see just what those limitations are and how they apply to your usage. Everyone has different restrictions and limitations that apply to them only. Please check often to keep updated since things can change last minute, again due to the circumstances of the COVID-19 situation.

Whether we will be able to have our Friends of WPL's annual Book Sale in September is still to be determined at this time. Please look for further information as it becomes available to us. We are hoping that this event will still be able to be held.

We are also working on programs which we will be able to bring to you virtually. Enjoy your summer and we will be seeing you soon.

Take care and stay safe!
