

Back by popular demand!

Incase you missed Bill's first outstanding and engaging performance with us in 2017, you won't want to miss out on the thrill and excitement, once again. Don't miss this opportunity to see, hear and enjoy, for a second time, a wonderfully fun and delightful experience, for ALL ages!.

BILL THURMAN, FIDDLER Extraordinaire!

Featuring his newest CD:

NOTHIN' BUT FIDDLE AND A SARCOMA SURVIVOR

Bill Thurman, composer, arranger, and fiddler extraordinaire, brings a lifetime of experience to his music. He plays all kinds of fiddle including classical, Celtic, bluegrass, old-time, jazz, blues, soul, pop, ethnic - you name it. He grew up in Memphis, Tennessee and now lives and works in the greater Little Rock, Arkansas area. His discography includes Celtic Collection, Jigs and Reels, Pullin' a Few Strings, Fiddlin' My Life Away, Fiddlin' for Fun, Bill Thurman's Favorites, Some Kinda Blue and others. His newest release is Nothin' but Fiddle and a Sarcoma Survivor. This CD is a product of Bill's journey with a rare form of cancer called leiomyosarcoma. It features a lone fiddle player and a varied selection of tunes from Celtic to Jazz to Amazing Grace.

The Willington Public Library

Saturday, July 21, at 1:00 pm

7 Ruby Road, Willington, CT 860-429-3854

www.willingtonpubliclibrary.org & Facebook

Learn more about Bill and purchase CD's by going to his website at billthurmanmusic.com